Missives from the Baronesses

Battlemoor

We are home safe from Battlemoor with lots of laundry and great memories. This post is long but we want to make sure to thank so many people for their service this weekend.

-We saw Lief Davidson elevated to Knighthood and Her Royal Highness, Crown Princess Anna elevated to a Pelican in very powerful ceremonies.

-Lord Konrad von Alpirsbach is the new Royal Archer of the Outlands! Umbertino also represented Caer Galen well, coming in second.

-Lord Vyncent was awarded a Silver Tyne by Their Majesties!

-The entire Barony was given an Award of the Hearthstead from King Tom of Northshield for our years of exceptional hospitality.

-Young Erasmus won his choice of axe to be made by the King during a raffle. It was quite a sight to see everyone's joy at his entering court to claim his prize.

-The "Come As You Aren't" party on Saturday was a HUGE hit. Lady Anabel did a great job of organizing the party and we should mention the following

• The Bartenders were creative and kept the place hopping.
• The ID checkers were appropriately officious, especially His Honor, Baron Carrick.
• The addition of quesadillas, bacon, grilled salami and grilled cheese were a delight for everyone.
• The special appearance of the Turkish men who helped with bartending and cooking made for some fun times.
• House Vandal and their generosity of the Nostrovia table got the party started early!
• We are immensely grateful to the early rising clean up crew, most notably Lady Bree, Mistress Brigetta (of Drygestan) and Lord Miguel (who also stayed up all night helping).
• Finally, this party would not have been quite so well basted if not for the donated libations and food. Thank you to everyone, including the Kingdom of Atenveldt.

-Young Alexandra performed a fantastic tuck and roll in the road that amazed all the adults who witnessed her trip.

-We were honored to have not 1 but 2 teams enter the Tournament of the Guard and display such acts of chivalry and grace on the field.

-We were surprised with a gift of new Baronial feast gear commissioned by Baron Andros and created by Mistress Mineko of Atenveldt.

-We gave the following awards and recognitions:
• Keridwen Andersdottir – Arch
• Cecilia Caterina da Firenze – Arch
• Massimiliano Pontieri dal Sasso - Cookie (his first one!)

• Zodrick – Bard Militant
• Padraig – inducted to the Veterani for his archery at Northern Realms War
•Jeanne Marie – provided with citizenship papers and created an Ambassador of Caer Galen, declaring: "that all land, space, goods, beasts, and persons within three good paces' reach in any direction from her heart shall be considered to be within the boundaries and demesne of Caer Galen."

-Our camp was bigger and better than ever in no small part due to the hard work of THLady Matilda Beresford as land coordinator, Lady Mahara as food coordinator and EVERYONE else who helped us host guests and make them and visitors feel welcome.

-Special thanks to His Honor Baron Max who revived the fire pit and allowed our hospitality to shine and keep folks warm.
-Super special thanks to THLady Cecilia who organized scribes from the Northern Outlands allowing us to make a gift of 20 scroll blanks to Their Excellencies of Citadel. Both they and we were overwhelmed with the display of talent and generosity in these scrolls.

Caer Galen is truly a jewel in the crown of the Outlands and we are honored and grateful to be your baronesses.

Letter from Their Excellencies of the Citdal of the Southern Pass

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to Their Excellencies Anne and Matilda from the Barony of Caer Galen, THLady Cecilia Caterina da Firenze from Caer Galen, and the 11 scribes from the baronies of Caer Galen, Caerthe, Unser Hafen, Dragonsspine that contributed to a wonderful gift to the Citadel.

When we stepped up, Their Excellencies Anne and Matilda offered us help with some blank scrolls while we reactivated our Scribe´s Guild. At Battlemoor we were honored to be invited to their court to receive the scrolls they had gathered together with the astute help of THLady Cecilia Caterina da Firenze. THLady Cecilia formed an army of 11 scribes and herself from 4 different baronies, who produced a total of 19 blank scrolls. This is a true proof of the DREAM. We needed help and were immediately taken care of. We are in debt with Their Excellencies Anne and Matilda for offering, THLady Cecilia Caterina da Firenze for coordinating and participating, and to the 11 scribes that contributed to this wonderful gift to our dear Citadel. Thank you all and please remember His Excellency Tariq and I will always be at your service.

Knight Marshal – Lord Finn

Greetings Caer Galen,

Please accept my apologies for the tardiness of this report.

Practices have been located at our outdoor site (Roosevelt Park, Longmont- SW corner of Longs Peak Ave. and Bross St. by the pavilion). Attendance has been variable from 6 fighters to 10 fighters suiting up. We had a new fighter suit up to join us as well. No injuries to report this month.

We are moving into our indoor site now- Boulder County Fairgrounds, Barn A- I am looking forward to seeing everyone there.

Battlemoor was a great event- thank you to everyone who came out, helped out, and made it an enjoyable time!

YIS,
Finn

Rapier Marshal – Lady Jehennette

Greetings!

This month I have thankfully had a team helping me out with marshaling duties. Thank you to Lord Tim, Don Triffyn (sp?), and Don Thomas for stepping in a helping out! We have seen a steady attendance at practices of between 10 and 15 fencers or more. (Lower numbers on rainy days but apparently some are still stubborn enough to challenge the clouds!) Practices have still been held every Tuesday from 6 to 9 PM in Roosevelt Park, Longmont. There were no injuries or breaks this month that were brought to my attention.

THIS MONTH PRACTICES WILL MOVE back to Boulder County Fairgrounds.
Please remember to attend there beginning tonight! I will have the drop tester with me if you need to double check any garb before Battlemoor.

Yours In Service,

Gothic Calligraphy at October Folk Moot - THL Cecilia

Good Morning Scribes,

At October Folkmooot October 6th, Lady Anne from Unser Hafen will be joining us to teach the Lutrell Psalter Hand for Calligraphy. I know we dont have scribal assignments for Midwinter yet, but I was thinking how cool would it be if all of the scrolls given at Midwinter were based on Lutrell since the event theme is Lutrell. If you are interested in this class, please let me or Lady Anne Marjorie Monroe-Fischer know as soon as possible so she can make sure she has enough supplies. Thank you!!!

Midwinter - Master Massimliano

Are you hopelessly stuck in 2015?
Not as much as you think!

Caer Galen Midwinter this year will be set in the frosty reaches of Lincolnshire in the year 1327. Robin Hood and Adam Bell have settled in for the winter, the harvest is done, and winter has come.

The Luttrell Psalter (British Library Add. MS 42130) will be our guide as we step back in time to that quiet winter of peace and plenty.

Join the Barony of Caer Galen as we hold classes, workshops, craft days, and more in preparation for this event. With months to prepare and the skilled artisans of Caer Galen offering ALL OF THE HELP, this will be a midwinter to remember.

Explore the links below, visit the Caer Galen Facebook Page, come to a hundred seminars, and join in the fun.

Let's make the magic!

12 December 2015
10:00 AM to 9:00 PM
First Congregational Church
1500 9th Avenue, in Longmont. Park on the North or West side, come in through the Northeast door. As in previous years, this will be a dry site.
Site is free; Feast $10 per person

BEHOLD! The Feast!

Lady Pvari and Sir Leifr are preparing your feast for you, even as you read this. "WHAT?" you may ask, "Even now? Months in advance?" The answer is simply yes! These two exceptional chefs are hard at work this very minute hand churning the butter, carefully growing the wheat that will be your bread.

All right, perhaps their preparations are not quite that intensive. But they have already prepared this feast at least twice (not joking!) to fine-tune their recipes and make sure that the full-scale preparation is as good as the small scale test runs. They've been comparing primary source materials against existing research to find that perfectly period 1327 menu and prepare a feast that will take you back in time. As it stands now, your menu is as follows:
Bread and butter throughout
A rich turnip soup
Loseyns
Cormarye with savory root vegetable compote
Frutours

Note - these recipes are actively NOT the final form the feast will take. These masterful chefs are tweaking these recipes to maximize deliciousness. In short: Brace yourselves, this is going to be delicious!

Overview

There will be a lot of classes, seminars, workshops, and project days in the months leading up to this event. Browse through them all by scrolling down, or use the links above to go straight to the things that you need for this to be ready to have the most magical night ever.

Autocrat
Baron Massimliano is your coordinator. When stuff goes wrong it is because he dropped the ball. When stuff goes right, it is because he picked good staff. If you have questions or concerns, mail him directly at unlikely(at)gmail(dot)com.> He also did this horrid HTML, so if you find a problem, mail him with that too.

Troll and Accounting
Mistress Jeanne-Marie du Bois has volunteered to handle the money, take reservations, and do the final accounting. This makes her, in my opinion, the bravest little toaster of them all.

Chefs
Lady Pvari and Sir Lief are cooking for us. Watch this space for the tentative menu as it develops. (It's already developed, we've already had a test run, and it's delicious. But right now I'm too lazy to type it in. I just want to get this page UP right now...)

Event Volunteer Coordinator
Lady Anabel la clergess is our personnel coordinator. And we'll be pressing her into a lot of other stuff, too. Mua ha ha ha ha.

Explore the Luttrell Psalter and learn more about medieval beer bongs.
